Second- Functions and Responsibilities of Office:

Terms of reference and Obligations of the Executive Office of the Committee for Goods:

For implementing the provisions of the Cabinet Resolution No. 20 of 2019, Office shall have the following functions:

1. Conduct required procedures to implement the resolutions of the United Nations Security Council pursuant to chapter VII of UN Charter as those related to Terrorism, Terrorism Financing, Prevention, Suppression and disruption of Proliferation of armament and it is financing and other resolutions immediately and without a prior notice to the designated. Upon issuance, the sanction list is to be circulated, via e-mail, to financial establishments, businesses and their non-financial professions. This also applies to those included in domestic terrorism lists as per Cabinet resolutions.
2. Immediate posting of the name of any listed on the Executive Office website (www.uaeiec.ae).
3. After the completion of funds freezing procedures, Office shall immediately notify the designated residing in Country about his inclusion in the sanctions list. The designated shall be directly provided with an explanatory summary or with information concerning the reasons of the listing, with a description of the repercussions of having the name listed in the sanctions list. The designated shall be also guided to Office website to recognize the procedure to be followed to complain / consider the request for the removal of name from sanctions list, to include the possibility of submitting such requests to the Ombudsman of the Security Council, as well as to submit a request to use part of the frozen funds.

(A designated person residing in Country, and is included in local terrorism list is directed to Ministry of Justice in case of having an inquiry about grievance procedure/ a request for the removal of name from local list of terrorism. This is besides the possibility of using part of the frozen funds in accordance with the provisions of the Cabinet resolution No. 20 of 2019).

Third- Circulation of designation and re-designation in UN sanctions lists or local lists of Terrorism:

1. Office receives information on the inclusion of individuals and entities in the list of Security Council sanctions from two sources, the first is Security Council website (which is followed up on a daily basis), and the second is the Permanent Mission of the UAE at the United Nations. However, for the inclusion in local lists of terrorism, Office receives information from the Supreme Council for National Security in accordance with Cabinet resolutions.

2. Office shall circulate any update in terms of inclusion, modification or deletion of the names of individuals and entities in Security Council sanctions list or local lists of terrorism, without delay and without a prior notice, by sending such names through the electronic system to security agencies and regulatory authorities, and get an acknowledgment of receipt. Office, as an additional measure, shall circulate the same via e-mail to financial establishments, nonfinancial businesses and professions related to supervisory authorities, as well as to participants in “ List of International and Local Sanctions” Page at the Committee for Goods website.
3. Cabinet Resolution No. 20 of 2019 stipulates that in the event information or data are available about the listed individuals or entities, financial institutions, businesses and professions shall inform their security agencies and supervisory authorities, which in turn notify Office via electronic system about the same within five working days.
4. Office shall send information and data received from security agencies and supervisory authorities to sanctions committee through the UAE Permanent Mission to the United Nations. A copy of the same shall also be sent to International Security Cooperation Department and the United Nations Department at Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation. However, information and data related to local lists of terrorism shall be sent to the Supreme Council for National Security via the encrypted electronic system.

(All steps above shall apply to decisions of re-designation in lists)

Fourth- Procedure
